

Eastcombe Primary School Curriculum Statement for PSHE

Intent	The intent of our PSHE curriculum is to deliver a high quality educational experience for all pupils, which enables them to become healthy, independent and responsible members of society. Our PSHE curriculum combines citizenship with personal wellbeing, whilst promoting fundamental British and it underpins the ethos and key values of our school. Our children are encouraged to develop their sense of self-worth by playing a positive role in contributing to school life and the wider community.
	Children to acquire the knowledge and skills which enable them to access the wider curriculum and prepare them to be a global citizen now and part of the global community in the future.	To provide a balanced and broadly-based curriculum which promotes the moral, cultural and mental development of pupils.	To incorporate an understanding of RSE so that children know more, understand more and remember more. This will enable them to be safe and understand how to develop healthy relationships now and in their future lives.
Implementation	Deliver a clear and comprehensive scheme of work in line with the National Curriculum. The PSHE curriculum will have three core learning themes: health & wellbeing, relationships and living in the wider world.	Whole school assemblies to always make links to PSHE, British values and SMSC.	Delivery of a clear and comprehensive scheme of RSE work in line with the National Curriculum. Teaching and learning of RSE will be planned explicitly for each year group, so that children know more, remember more and understand more.
Impact	Children will know more and remember more about PSHE.	Children will recognise and apply the British Values of democracy, tolerance, mutual respect, rule of law and liberty.	Children will develop healthy, positive friendships with peers bot now and in the future.
	Children will understand the physical aspects involved in RSE at an age appropriate level.	Children will have respect for themselves and for others.	Children will have positive body images.
